

IN MEMORY OF...

FANZINE ** ISSUE ONE Dead -- But Not Yet Buried Only 25¢

IT'S A START!

Welcome to the first issue of IN MEMORY OF. Haven't done anything like this in a long time so bear with me. I used to do a one page info sheet back in early '86, but it wasn't working out. Also, I did a couple of compilation tapes. With those I met alot of people, traded lots of tapes and generally had fun. Hardcore allowed me to get involved with thing. I didn't work on anything for a couple of years because I got into the whole going to shows, spending time with my friends etc, etc... Now is a different story. Why is it since Some Records has closed, everything fell apart? It seems like everyone dropped out, bands signed to big labels and don't play shows anymore and nobody is forming new bands. There is definately a lull in the N.Y.C. scene. Sure there are hundreds of people into it, but they only show up when there is a big show. What is needed is new bands, more shows and definately more fanzines. To me, this is one of the most important things in hardcore. Fanzines equals creative freedom. Write a couple of articles, interview a band, review that record, speak out against the bullshit that goes on or whatever. It's your choice!

So this is what I am trying to do. I'm putting my two cents in. It is not much but it's a start. I am going to present ideas, do some interviews, express my opinions, have info & latest news plus in each issue will have something in it about hardcore's past. I'm not a genius at writing, spelling or typing, but I want to bring back the real fansine. Neat but crude. A fanzine doesn't have to be all glitz like Boiling Point or Schism. It could be handwritten and xeroxed. Anything, anyway.

I'm not good at writing down what I have to say, so I hope you people can make some sense out of what you have just read. I would like response to this issue, whether you like it, think it's alright or just plain sucks. What would you like to see. Bands and fansines can send a small ad for free if you want. Send everything to the address on back.

Inside this issue is some reviews, my trade list & wants, article about record collecting and an ad gallery of old hardcore records. (All these records are out of print, so don't send any money to these things) Well, I hope your quarter was well spent. Now on with IN MEMORY OF...

ATTENTION XXX ATTENTION XXX ATTENTION

If you see the Minor Threat "Live at Buff Hall" EP in stores for more than $3.00 DON'T BUY IT! There are hundreds in print and still very much available thru Blacklist Mailorder. Here is the address: 181 Shipley St. S.F., Calif. 94107 (415) 957-9390
Call them first to make sure they still have copies left.

REVIEWS OF RECORDS/TAPES:

Brotherhood demo "Brotherhood of Friends"

Musically, the most original of the latest slew of positive bands sweeping the nation. Features Greg (ex-singer of False Liberty) on Guitar. The real problem with this is the vocals, they are really awful. Sounds like he is crying. Worth getting, look for 7" soon. Send $3 to: Greg/Brotherhood 3247 N.W. 60th Seattle, WA. 98117

Unit Pride 7"

Six more songs of unity, being friends and of course, being wide awake. Musically 2nd rate Youth Of Today. I think it's out of print but you can always try.

Step Forward Records
P.O.Box 5115
Phoenix, AZ. 85076

Wide

Walk Proud 7"

Why are positive records always more expensive than others, it's bad enough that there are all going to be on the wall at Venus sometime in the near future. This one sells around for $5.00 in stores. Well I got this one in a trade and this has got to be the lamest posi-record in a long time. Oh yeah, they also thank "god"

New Age Records
1036 Whitney Dr.
Big Bear City, CA. 92314

Turning Point demo & 7"

Well, I finally found those lost Y.O.T. tapes. Not exactly, this band is almost a carbon copy. Listen to this demo and think "Damn, these kids want to be Youth of Today." Then you get to the 7" and it's a different story. Now it's Y.O.T., Bold with a touch of Side By Side thrown in. Weird. 7" comes with two huge fold-out sheets w/lyrics & pictures. Lyrically, it's very skimpy.

Hi-Impact Records
2310 Kennwynn Rd.
Wilmington, DE. 19810

Chain of Strength 7" "True Till Death"

AAAAHHHH!!! Not this record! Not this record! (Needle sound scratching across this record sounds better than the record!) "True till Death"? Not with that haircut. Destined to be a collector's item.

Revelation Records
$3.99 at any store

Leeway "Born to Expire" LP

Well, many people (including the band) have been waiting for this record to come out. The wait is over, but what a disappointment. All the material on this disc is great, but the production is much too slick. Eddie has very good vocal range, and here it is very flat. I am sure this record will sell alot and get airplay on WSOU, I find myself going back to the demo and live tapes. You will find it anywhere it's on Profile.

Enuf demo

A.J. has a good voice, but this is 2nd class Grippled Youth riffs thrown together. Saw them live and didn't get it. See for your self. Also thanks god for guidance.

Enuf (Ari)
2671 Wildberry
Edison, N.J. 08817

World Discrimination demo

And it's about time. The exact origins of this band are legendary, with more line-up changes than A.F. & Y.O.T. combined. Cheap punk rock with good hooks. My only gripes are the intro borrows from "Secret Agent Man" and another song I can't remember. Where's the lyrics, Matt?

SMART RECORD HUNTING

or

"The day I found 'Thou Shalt Not Kill' for a $1.00"

by D.Koenig

Cause For Alarm 7" $75 ? Agnostic Front 7" $100 ?! "Get it Away" $50 ?! N.Y.C. Hardcore 7" $25 ?!!! What the fuck? Hold on a minute! Who's gonna pay that much for those records?? Well, people do. Maybe you did. Well, that's sad because you gave your money to some greedy-ass records store who could care less about the music. Sure, these records are rare, but no record's worth $50. That is way too much for a piece of plastic.

Ever since records were made there has been record collectors. Many hardcore records have limited pressings or colored vinyl which makes them more desirable to collectors. In N.Y.C., collecting the discs has skyrocketed over the last few years. Everybody wants their own copy of an original "Victim in Pain" or a Minor Threat 7". Sad truth is that there isn't enough to go around. So in turn the record stores jack the prices up. People pay it and again the stores raise the prices. THIS IS WHY THE RECORDS ARE SO EXPENSIVE !! The prices of these records will go down if everybody would stop paying it. Hardcore and the records that go with it is special and shouldn't have a $ sign all over it.

What I am going to try and do is present you with some ideas, tips and alternatives to paying ridiculous prices on the records you want. Basically, most of this article is going to pertain to the N.Y.C. area, but alot of the info can be used anywhere.

KNOW WHAT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR:

One of the major problems with searching for certain records is not knowing what the records look like. Just knowing what the title of the record is will not help you. You can get shafted too easily by someone trying to sell you a fake. Try to read up about it, find out titles, label, date pressed, are lyrics included, and so on. Look through other peoples' collections. Knowing what the cover looks like is a major help (If there is a cover!). A lot of times you'll be going through record bins and pass over a good record because you were not aware of what it looked like. Getting information about the records is very important.

BEWARE OF BOOTLEGS:

With the rise of record prices come the rise of bootlegging. Some people are being real dicks and are pressing up rare hardcore records. In the past year alone, we have seen "United Blood", "Cause for Alarm", and "The Kids Will Have Their Say" suddenly appear in large numbers. I got beat on that SSD 12", thinking it was an original not noticing the "X-CLAIM" was really "EX-CLAIM". My opinion is don't buy bootlegs unless you really want the music on the record real bad. You are just making some asshole wealthy if you buy them. Legit bootlegs are a different story, such as those recent Lost and Found pressings of Minor Threat, G.I., and so on.

SEARCH THROUGH THOSE USED BINS:

Many, I mean many Great records are found looking in the used bins of record stores. Sounds, Venus, and Second Coming all sell used records. This is where the finds lie ripe for the picking. Never pass them up, even in the most stupidest stores. It would take a couple of pages to list all the cool records I know that have been found at these places. I myself have found a bundle.

LOOK IN THE LEAST OBVIOUS PLACES:

Would you believe hardcore records have found on the streets? Well, not exactly on the streets, but sometimes down on St. Mark's/Astor Place people sell their records real cheap. As you walk by all the shit, keep an eye open you might find something good. Also, look for those people in front of CBGB's getting rid of entire collections for cheap. If you are at the right place at the right time, you might hit the jackpot. Try not to be greedy though, share the wealth. Which leads to:

TRADING RECORDS:

What better way to get rid of unwanted records than to trade them for records you really want. Some people might just trade something great for a record you have. Even some stores will trade for records. You have to watch for unsavory store owners who just want to rip you off.

D.Y.S.

SISTERHOOD

READ RECORD COLLECTING MAGAZINES:

A good place to look for rare records is in collector's magazines, especially Goldmine. Usually these magazines specialize in 50's & 60's music, but everyone in awhile there are ads for hardcore records. Not a lot of people send for stuff through these places, so you might come up with something. The only problem with these things is the expensive postage charge some places have.

STEALING RECORDS:

This is stupid. Don't steal records from people, it is not cool. How would you like it if your records got stolen. I don't care even if the kid's a dick, just don't do it. Leads to:

BE PATIENT, YOUR DAY WILL COME:

Obviously, you won't find all the records you want in one day. You might never find them. Keep at it! Always be on the lookout for rare records.

SOME QUICK GUIDELINES:

- 1) Never pay more than $10 dollars for any record.
- 2) If the record isn't in the best of shape, buy it anyway. This is because if the record is rare you can always trade it to a store for something better. They will usually take it. Besides, someone else will buy if you don't.
- 3) If you see a valuable record in a store, keep quiet because the store clerks might decide to raise the price on you at the last minute.
- 4) Try to find rare records of other kinds of music. You can always trade these at stores for hardcore records.
- 5) If you don't like your records, you can always give them to me!

STORES TO LOOK:

- 1) SOUNDS***St. Mark's Place...My personal favorite-Best used section in N.Y.C.-Can get crowded on weekends, A must.
- 2) SECOND COMING***Sullivan St....Decent. Not a place to go all the time.
- 3) VENUS***Corner of 8th & 6th Ave... I hate the place but sometimes you have no choice but to go in because they get most of the recent hardcore records. Decent used section-Records on the wall are $15.00 and up. Don't buy them!
- 4) Bleeker Bob's***Same as Venus but no used section. Don't buy those overpriced records.
- 5) Hideout Records***near 4th St. & 6th Av. Got shit for records, 60's type store, but without fail they always have hardcore records on the wall. Cheaper than Bleeker's & Venus, you might get something for $10.
- 6) FREEBING RECORDS***Caroline St..... Used to be a cool store-Basic hardcore records-Always worth a look.
- 7) Bleeker St. Jazz***Bleeker St. near Caroline...Has some cool records, but they are hidden away in the back. You really have to hassle the guy to get a look. He might charge a lot, it depends on who waits on you.

So I hope some of what I told you helps you find what you are looking for. Happy hunting, and again DON'T PAY HIGH RECORD PRICES!!!

YOUTH BRIGADE LP

CAN YOU GET INTO THE SOUND AND FURY?!!

Yes, it's finally here, the long-awaited reborn debut album from L.A.'s own YOUTH BRIGADE, and you too can get caught up in the "Sound and Fury," of this explosive new music. Already receiving critical raves with such powerful songs as "Sink With California," "Merrin Blue," "Modest Proposal," and "What Will The Revolution Change," this is one album not to miss. If you liked the cuts off last year's B.Y.O. compilation "Someone Got Their Head Kicked In," you won't want to let another day go by without this record. Fourteen songs with only four from last year's limited release that means ten brand new, never released songs and the brilliant production of Thom Wilson makes this what Matt Groening of the L.A. Reader already calls "one of the best albums of the year." Get the "Sound and Fury," the debut album by YOUTH BRIGADE on B.Y.O. records.
